

Arnprior Public Library March Break 2012 Events – Registration begins Tuesday Feb 21 @ noon

Monday, March 12, 1 - 2:30 pm Petsapalooza: Celebrating our animal friends!

For children aged 6 – 12 years $2/child
Veterinary Technician Sylvia Stanton will share pet care tips and stories from the operating room. We will even perform a mock C-section! Ann Lambert will be visiting with her beautiful therapy dogs, Lia and Chara. The Arnprior and District Humane Society currently is in need of pet food, non-clumping cat litter, liquid laundry detergent, paper towels, and , and money. If you are able to help, please bring donations to our Petsapalooza story time!

Tuesday, March 13, 1 – 3 pm Family Hike in Gillies Grove with the Macnamara Field Naturalists' Club

For children aged 6 – 12 & their caregivers $2/participant
Join us for an afternoon of learning about the natural world around us. Alicia Salyi, Youth Programs Director of the Macnamara Field Naturalist's Club, and leader of the Young Macnamara's children's program, will introduce us to what the habitats are in Arnprior and the surrounding areas, and how animals survive in them. She will then lead us on a detective hunt for evidence of our animal friends in Gillies Grove. Bring appropriate clothes for the weather (including warm boots).

Wednesday, March 14, 1 – 2:30 pm Chemistry Magic with Let's Talk Science

For children aged 6 – 12 years $2/child
The Chemistry Magic show is an interactive presentation where kids get to see money burn, create slime, watch Styrofoam melt, and lots more! Not only will students see these amazing tricks before their eyes, they will learn the chemistry behind why these reactions are happening.
